

Industry Partner Membership Application

East Bay Rental Housing Association (EBRHA) is a full-service nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting fair, safe and well maintained residential rental housing that is compliant with local ordinances and state/federal laws. We offer landlord/property manager members city-specific and timely education, one-on-one property management advice, free rental forms, networking opportunities, vendor referrals and discounts, and advocacy at the state and local level. EBRHA membership consists of 1,200+ residential rental property owners and managers who represent over 18,000 rental units throughout Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Members range in size from small investors with just one property to large property management companies that own or manage hundreds of units. EBRHA vendor members include over 120 plumbers, painters, attorneys, brokers and other service contractors in more than 50 business classifications.
